of cider? But what's the use when I can taper off withof cider? But where the use when I can taper of which out joining? I wont be cuiced by others when I can ge streight by mysolf, if I've a mind tot observed Brown, as he ber't up against the wall. Temperance; fiddle-stick! I must have a little now and them, only I con't never hit the right quantity. I've a great mind to get graged. But if them temperance folks will go the ani-mal, the whole queher, the complete cat fish, I'm the boy to join 'em. Quit the cities and live upon acorns. Veto pigtail, long nine, and maccaboy. But they wont. They are just like my dad, who used to hammer me for lying in ited when I was a boy, and it was only because his coppars were so hot he couldn't sleep himself. Hot coppers is an earlier risor than a chicken, and the way to get up early is totake a treble allowance. Blees my heart! said Brown if I ain't getting the where to-go in

What's the matter neighbor? said a man with

I'm dizzy-got the where-to-go in my head instead o

Suall I assist you?

Sir you're too polits. You are as insinuating as a cork-sersw. I'll not bother you.

No bother by no means. Its my duty.

Here's a philanthropist! His duty to assist people in distress! Why your a bird, a perfect tom tit Chester-

Don't run your rigs on me lark, or I'll give you ano ther guess sort where to go. I'll a sort of impression that you're sprung. You have had too much tea and

You hurt my feelings, and brush the blue off the deliente plum of my character by your insinuations. After to correa, I wont touch toddy if it should ery for me

Well you shout 'entry & up on emspicion. Can you fashion?

walk a crick foot, to at If it was at that I am trou mind, I'm sure I could I know I can to-morrow, letep in at ter dinner to take off your things, bring your work and ate, to take the glas y.

"That will never to. Walk a crack or you must walk your chalk before the M yor." Well, I win. You mus'nt laugh though, or you'll put me out."

'Fire away, Fiangam Till be as grave as a jackse, or a jackse of the peace when he wants sis dinner."

'Stimi and a reveal Brown. 'Hare good' He made a desper to rish to encape, but his accommodating friend-pit out his too and Neddy Brown typined the de line and fall of the Roman empire.

'I'm down, and it's all up,' signed ..e. It's F for figs, I for jigs, and N for knacklebones and I s for Jack stones, with me. My knees are start in and I coult tell whether I've got any hands or n t. If I'd p seed the retorm bill or sends the temperance sonety, p seed the retorn but of received the appropriate this would'nt nave happened. I'm a prey to the law though I's prayed not be many a time. I'll knock off, and come out cathered for the future. It will be great saving of tips and clothers too, for pants are tore tamount to the slack of fifty cents: old Canv seback will charge full that for sewing a pancake to each

"Wny didnt you do nice, and do credit to them as toch you up, instead of trying to break jail with no mor manners than a bose?"

. An, now, let me go, tha 's a good, man, and I'll never do so any more. Ah! do-you're a clever fellow!"

'How often upon your deed and deed and cross your Brooth, have you promised that?'
'Don't ask me for I cant tell. I has'nt got my cyphering book. Long sums always bother me so. Then the case is all up Dicky, and down Dennis.

When you're once took and you're took now, as fur as my reading goes, there's no sereshunary power vestrates under the constitution of the city, or the corporosity o: State, in me for suff rin you to mosey home, or cal stick any where else. For the law thinks if you're bed enough scorched to be took, you're but enough schoren. ed to be hung on to; and I'm inclined to think so too; seeing as how dides in one street is pretty nign as di-does in another; and men what corned can't go straight home, if to try. It also appears that your flint how been fixed, so much bigger is my sponsibility. The in ture of the case is as clear as blue mud, especially as you tried to scratch gravel, break jul, and make yourself secre, it's my opinion that I must turtle off with you and han you politely into quod. The court was so prolix in delivering opinion, that Brown had fallen fast asleep before the awail termina-tion that consigned him to quod was reached. With some difficulty, he was aroused and carried to the grand not of the bibulous, and in the morning was disposed el recunden artem.

Vade Mecum.

DR. C. H. STEELE OFFERS his Professional Services to the Public. Office adjoining Mrs. Loocker nian's residence.

MR. AND MRS. HAMILTON'S

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES, Corner of Suratoga and Courtland Streets, extensive to illustrate any subject treated upon in the text books of the school. Their Cabinet of Minerals, though small, contains upwards of 700 specimens. Their Seminaupwards of 700 specimens. Their Seminary is also furnished with an Armillary Sphere, Cary's, Wilson's, and Gardner's Globes, several Pianos and a Harp; the instruments they? possess are the best they could procure in this country, or in England.

they possess are the best they could protect in this country, or in England.

The Library contains upwards of 2000 volumes, connected with the studies pursued in the school, to which the young ladies have

In all the departments the most competent teacners are engaged, whose instructions are given under the immediate eye of the principals.

The course of instruction is carried on in a regular system of academic studies, embra-cing all the scientific and ornamental branch-tue Principals.

Maryland Wazette.

ANNAPOLIS Thursday, October 1, 1835. BARBACUE.

There will be a Barbacue near the Fort Bridge, in the 2d Election District, A. A. county, on Friday the 2d October, to which the Canlidates for Congress, the Candidates for the Legislature, and the Public of all parties, are Sept. 24.

JAMES MURRAY, Esq. will be supported as a Delegate to the General Assembly by MANY VOTERS.

We are authorised to announce SPRIGG HARWOOD, Esq. as a Candidate for the next Legislature.

FOR CONGRESS. Fourth District—Anne Arundel County and Cities of Annapolis and Baltimore.

> Van Buren. ISAAC MckIM, BENJAMIN C HOWARD, Anti Van Buren. JAMES P. HEATH, CHARLES R. STEWART. Independent. JOHN C. WEEMS. Gen'l. GEORGE H. STEUART.

DELEGATES TO ASSEMBLY.

Anti Van Buren. NICHOLAS BREWER, THOMAS DUCKETT ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY. Van Buren. GRAFTON, B. DUVALL, EDWARD HAMMOND, WESLEY LINTHICUM, Dr. ROBERT FRANKLIN.

Anti Van Bur ". LEONARD IGLEHART, CHARLES S. RIDGELY, JOHN MERCER.

The Bank of the United States is closing up its cope ras as speedily, we presume, as comports with public convenience, and thus of the lebtors of the Bank. We find in the Boston Atlas the following statement:
The Bank has twenty-five branches. Eight of them are sold, or nearly wound up. sales have been effected at one, two, three an four year's credit. In two instances the instal nents have extended to five years. Two other branches will be sold, probably in a few days A negotiation for them is in progress. The cight branches above alluded to are Portsmouth Hartford, Utica, Buffilo. Louisville, Lexington Charleston, and Baltimore. The two under no gotiation, are Fayetteville and Nashville.

From the New York Commercial Advertiser. Yesterday afternoon Castle Garden was filled, and the Battery thronged to witness the pro mised balloon ascension of Monsicur and Mademoiselle Lauriat. After the inflation, and all the preparations finished, the young lady ap in the garden, and was enthusiastically cheered by the immense audience. Mad. L. a young lady apparently twenty, of large size, fine countenance, and genteel appearance. She was dressed in white, and had on a black velvet, equal distances from Jupiter and Castor. jockey cap, surmounted with white ostrich fea-thers falling back to her head. On entering the car, and standing beside her father, the cheers were redoubled, and the walls of the g rien cchoed with the plaudits. The basket had been heavily laden with ballast, which was then removed, leaving only a few sand bags for incidental use. The balloon then appeared to have sufficient ascensive power to perform its voyage, and rose gradually in the garden, taking an eastern direction, Mr. Lauriat waving his hat, and his daughter her handkerchief, amid repeated plaudits from below. It was evident, however. that the ascension of both parties could not take place, and in an instant the car was dashed against the ballustrade surmounting the garden, which was carried away by its violence. balloon and car were here arrested by the spectember next.

In the allowly to a short distance at the foot of Meetings have been held in all the towns and on and measured almost ten feet in length.

Seminary with every apparatus necessary for the safety of the young lady, to alight; which burg, Valisco, Brozoria and San Phillippe, have the safety of the young lady, to alight; which she did without difficulty or accident, and was adopted resolutions expressive of indignation at Pullosophical Apparatus is equal to any that conducted back to the garden, where she recountry, and their Chemical is sufficiently Mad. Lauriat, during the whole scene, exhibited ceived the congratulations of numerous visiters.

A conMad. Lauriat, during the whole scene, exhibited the utmost self-possession and composure, and and a determination expressed to abide by its expressed a confidence that her next attempt at an erial flight will not be frustrated by any ac- the 14th September, and it was expected that Mr. Lauriat, who remained in the car, was wed into the river to a sufficient distance to clear himself from the adjacent trees, and was a third time buoyed upward, and rose to an ele-vation of nine thousand feet. The balloon was visible for more than half an hour, when it sank gradually behind some clouds, which were at one period several hundred feet below him.

He passed over Brooklyn, Newtown, Flushing, and Prince's Garden, and landed about six o'clock on Long Neck, North Hempstead, on the farm of J. W. Thorn, Esq. after being up about one hour.

From the Charleston Courier. Sound views and wholesome PRACTICE prevailing in the North.—The following letter from the Parents and Guardians who wish more par-ticular information can obtain a prospectus Mayor of New York to A. H. Brown, Equire, of the Seminary, by Jending, (post paid,) to Chairman of the Seminary, by Jending, (post paid,) this city, gives gratifying evidence of the over- excitoment, but they are little regarded.

in favour of southern rights and institutions, and of the readiness of northern authorities to solutions adopted at the great public meeting in that city. ,

"MAYOR'S OFFICE, "New York, September 9, 1835.

"Sir: I have this morning received your com-munication under date of the 3d inst. advising me that the brig Jones left your port on the day before, with —, and four or five negroes, and that information had reached your city that the negroes had been kidnapped from the town of Hamburg.

"You suggest that it would be well to arrest and examine ____, on his arrival here, and that in a few days you hoped to have sufficient evidence to demand him of our State, &c. and I have made a deposition before the Police Magistrates, that I received your letter this morning in due course of mail, and believe the facts as stated therein, to be true; a warrant therefore will be issued to arrest — on his arrival.

"The authorities of this city and tate, are disposed to take all legal measures to head at such persons, and they are disposed to take the strongest measures authorised by law, to stop the disturbing acts of the Anti-Slavery Societies. I believe there is no one person b longing to our city or State Government, that is not entirely opposed to them as unjust, inexpedient and illegal. And I have no doubt but nine-tenths of our citizens are disposed to take all lawful and constitutional measures to arrest their incendiary proceedings.

"Respectfully, your obedient servant, "C. W. LAWRENCE.

"To the Chairman of the S. C. Association."

NAVIGATING THE ATLANTIC BY STEAM.

The New York Courier states that applica ion will be made to the next legislature or N. York for the charter of a company to be denominated "The Atlantic Steam Packet Company," that Captain Cobb, one of our most enterprising packet contains, her charge of this enterprise and that it is intended to build vessels of about and the return pass ge in about fourteen!"

> From the New York Post. HALLEY'S COMET.

This morning was highly favourable for ohervations on the Comet. About four o'clock was distant about 7' from a star of the seventh magnitude, presumed to be the same with one numbered 808 in the catalogue of Astrononical Society of London. The College possesses no instruments adapted to the determina- last six gentlemen are accompanied by their la tion of the place of the comet, but by a mean of various methods, its right ascension was found to be 6h. 21m. 12s. 37, and its declination 32° 37' 5' 93. If the table of co-ordinates given in the N utical almanac be correct, the comet will not reach its perihelion until the sixteenth of November.

To the naked eye the comet now presents the appearance of a nebulous star of the bith magnitude, and may be seen at one or two o'cl'k. to-morrow morning, in a line joining Juniand Capella, but never the former, and at about

Columbia College, Sept. 25.

From the New Orleans True American.

TEXAS. By the arrival of the schooner Lady Madion, Captain Dunford, from Vellasco, whence she started on the 27th ult., we are put in pos session of late intelligence from Texas. It appears that that country is in a state of extraor dinary excitement, and at the eve of a revolu-The alarming progress of centralism ed sale of a large quantity of settled territory, it would take such measures as will excite Santa Anna to prosecute his threatened invasion. It will doubtless call upon every Texonian to resist, by every honourable means ces first and arms afterwards—the usurpations

It is stated, that all the states of Mexico, except Texas, have given their assent to Central-ism and to the dominion of Santa Anna. This system is doubtless the proper one for the Mexican people, but it will not do for the Americans. Texas cannot submit to it; her only resource is in arms. A declaration of independence is the next thing we will doubtless hear of Centralism

Santa Anna is concentrating a large force at Saltillo. If he moves one step towards Texas, it will amount to a declaration of war. The political and military chiefs have iss proclamations for the purpose of allaying the

The Texanians look with confidence toward their fellow citizens of the United States, parin favour of southern rights and institutions, and of the readiness of northern authorities to redeem their constitutional faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations of the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations of the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations of the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations in a state of the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. It is bloosed that they will not be disappointed in a ternal in facility of the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. It is bloosed that they will not be disappointed in a ternal in facility of the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations and obligations. In the western alides, for an itematical faith and obligations are supported in the western alides of the western alides, for an it

> NEW OBLEANS, Sept. 14. A woman, stopped in Texas, has been lodged vesterday in our jail. We learn that she has killed two children in the state of Alabama, and she is to be brought to Mobile, there to be judg-

The rail road from Orleans street to the Bayou St. John has been nearly completed, under the direction of the intelligent and attentive engineers, Messrs. Morrick and Harper-the same gentlemen who superintended the construction of the canal in the upper faubourg, and who seem competent to any project of the kind.

The road is chiefly intended to lead to the burying grounds, and runs parallel and adjacent to the canal Girod. When opened it will afford a pleasant drive to our fellow citizens, particularly when the swamp shall have been drain ed, and the vicinity of the city near the Bayou St. John improved as contemplated.—Bee.

From the Boston Gazette. DEPARTURE OF MISSIONARIES.

An immense multitude consisting probably of several thousand people, two thirds of whom several thousand people, two thirds of whom sales with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an were ladies, assembled yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an were ladies, assembled yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an were ladies, assembled yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an well-assembled yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an well-assembled yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an extended yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an extended yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an extended yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an extended yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an extended yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an extended yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an extended yesterday morning at siness with one Patrick Finlay, who is now an extended yesterday morning at the patrick Finlay in the patrick Finlay is not provided the patrick Finlay in th Sargeant's wharf, for the purpose of witnessing the departure of the fine ship Louvre, Captain Brown, for the East Indies, which carried out 21 missionaries of the Baptist persuasion to disseminate the Gospel of our blessed Redeemer among the heathen. We could not but remark the admirable order and punctuality with which every thing was conducted.

The religious services were announced to commence at half past 10, a few minutes after which time, the Rev. Mr. Shurp, after a few appropriate remarks, read a hymn which was sung to the excellent tune of Old Hundred, and the object of which is to establish a line of with solemn effect, by the whole assembled mulsteam packets between that port and Liverpool. The Rev. Mr. Juckson then addressed The Courier adds-"We are happy to hear the throne of grace in an eloquent and impressive prayer of some ten minutes duration, after which, the numerous friends of the departing missionaries having in the mean time shaken and that it is intended to build vessels of about missionaries having in the mean time shades of arrays property, and Patrick the tweey, hundred tons burthen with two engines hands, and bade them an affectionate farewell; thief. The other portion of the property, to each. But little doubt is entertained of accomplishing the passage out in about twelve days, the wharf, and loosened her canvass to the propitious breeze.

The following is a list of the passengers:— Rev. Howard Malcolm, of Boston, Agent of he Baptist Board of Foreign Missions; Rev. Messrs. Elisha L. Abbott. of New York State; cle in Kilkenny county, Ireland. Robert D Davenport (printer) of Virginia; Sam. uel S. Day, of Upper Canada; James L. Haswell, of Troy, N. Y.; Lovell Ingalls, of Cumington, Mass.; Al. nson Reed, of Orleans county, N Y.; J. L. Schuck, of Richmond, Va.; (the dies); Miss Eleanor Macomber-all sent out by the Baptist Board of Foreign Missions. Rev Amos Sutton, Rev. Messrs. Noves and Phillips with their ladies, sent out by an English Society of General Baptists, destined to Orissa. -Messrs. Schuck, Reed, and Davenport, are des tined to Siam; two of the others are destined to the coast of Madras, and the remainder to the

SINGULAR INTERRUPTION.

Lost Sunday, as the Rev. Mr. Vaughan was publishing the banns of marriage between two coloured people, at the Episcopal Church one man the worse for liquor while I was at Monrovia in this town, the banns were forbidden in a loud that is, among the Americans. But before I arrived, voice, by a coloured man in the gallery, who expected to see them lying about the streets drunk, claimed the woman as his wife.

Salem Gazette.

ATTACK OF AN ALLIGATOR.

A young man by the name of Norton, res dent at a place called Brandy Branch, about 25 were going ahead. The inhabitants appear to sejon ahead. miles from here, was bitten in the hand and arm very good health, and are friendly towards one another by an alligator, about two weeks since, and a The people at Mourovia are all for trade, and they are through the rest of the Mexican republic—a bone fractured. We understand that he was all very pions; and I can say that, to my knowledge threatened invasion by Santa Anna—a meditatened invasion by —the imposition of burthensome and unequal taxes on the commerce of the country and the alligator serzed it, and he was only saved by taxes on the commerce of the country and the arrest of the Governor, are circumstances which have aroused the people of Texas to the deliquished his hold. The young man is much injured, and it may vet be necessary to perform fence of their rights and to resist oppression. The alligator was afterwards taking among the Americans—for it appeared to me take a day, and the practice as well as drinking. And yet will see them all going to church on Sanay three instructions; as you cannot get a man to work on Sanay for the people of their rights and to resist oppression. The alligator was afterwards taking the Americans—for it appeared to me take a day, and the practice as well as drinking. And yet is a day, and they appear to be very strict in their derections; as you cannot get a man to work on Sanady for the people of the country and the was only saved by

On Sunday last our town was thrown into iolent commotion in consequence of a repor having been circulated that murder had been mmitted on the night of the 17th inst. by a party of Irish laborers on the Rail Road in this vicinity. With a promptitude worthy of all praise, a large number of our citizens immediately assembled, and headed by the Sheriff of Texonian to the county, proceeded to the spot where the foul remonstran- act was said to have taken place, and succeeded in arresting three of the supposed murderers. They were brought to this place, and after an and enjoy themselves better than free bla examination before a magistrate, committed to States." ail to take their trial at the next October term of our county court. Their names are McCabe. McGenniss and McGlinn. As the case will un dergo a legal investigation, we shall refrain from giving such particulars as have come to our of 46 Maiden Lane, was about learning the moving such particulars as have come to our of 46 Maiden Lane, was about learning the knowledge. The testimony we understand (for we were not present at the examination) is strong; but as no traces of the body up to the perceived some bunches of beads hanging out of this pocket. He called him back, and as examinating out of putting our paper to press had been dis. covered, it is fair to presume the arrested individuals innocent until the contrary is proven

> PATAL SOMNAMBULISM. A young man named John Mulay who

employed in the Southwark Brewery, near Philadelphia, got up in his elect on Friday night of last week, and fell from an upper story into the cellar, and injured himself so hadly that he died in a few days atter in the Pennsylvania Hospie

A Spanish slave schooner, having on board 894 Africans, was captured some weeks so by

EXTRAORDINARY DISCOVERY OF AN EXTRAORDINARY DISCOVERY OF AR OLD ROBBERY.

About two years ago, Mrs. Janeway, who lives at 70 Chatham-street had a small trusk stolen from her, containing about $16,000 or more, in bank notes, English sovereigns, dollar and other coins, besides a quantity of reliable papers. Notice was given to the Police Office at the time, but no trace of the thieres could be discovered till Mesars. Merritt. Homans and discovered till Mesers. Merritt, Homans and Sparks took hold of the matter a few days ago. Putting in requisition the magic which they pos sess in such affairs they began a series of opens tions by which every one of the original thieve has been caught, and about 85000 of the mone recovered, besides all the valuable papers.

It appears that the robbery was committed the domestics then living in the family of Mn Janeway, at that time, Mary O'Mears, (size Mary Finlay by marriage) and Lydia Baker both lived with Mrs. Japeway as domestics.

Knowing that the old lady had large sums of money about her, and that she was very careles of it, these two girls could not resist the temp tation. Accordingly, having arranged the be Lydia Baker stole the trunk one evening from the room of Mrs. Janeway, and handed it to Mary Finlay, who handed it to Patrick Fin! who carried it off, and afterwards married th girl. They all divided the spoils, and left the employ of Mrs. Janeway.

A few days ago, the active police officers we have mentioned, got a clue to the whole robbe. ry, and went to Lauren's street in pursuit of Finlay. On approaching a window to get an entrance into the house, a large shaggy docume bouncing up to the window, and threaten ed to tear Mr. Merrit, the officer in pieces. In meat and held it out to the dog. The racel jumped through the window and caught it, while the officer jumped in and caught 340 sovereign of Mrs. Janeway's property, and Patrick the $5000. The whole three are now in security. Finlay himself attempted to account for the pos-session of so much property by saying that it hud been left him as a legacy by his wife's un.

N. Y. Herald,

LIBERIA.
TESTIMONY OF A SEA CAPTAIN. We believe the abolitionists nava done libelling the colony of Liberia; but es they have made no amends for the injuries they have inflicted, we here hold up another mirror before them, into which, if they look, they wi be compelled to see their deformity. Ciptain Outerbridge, of the brig Rover, carried out a cargo of colored spent two or three weeks in the colony, returned to this city, and, under date of 5th of August, addressed a letter to a merchant in New-Orleans, which is pub-lished in the N. O. Observer. The following is an

"The inhabitants of Monrovia, nearly all of them, had joined the temperance society, and it was had work for a person to get any thing to drink, that is is between regard to liquor; and I can safely say that I say led we do in the States; but in this I wasvery much desp-pointed, for the people appeared to be quite a different set from what we have in America.

I saw while I was in Monrovia, two of my passenger out a shooting, and they had two of the natives after them, with their guns on their shoulders, while they among the Americans—for it appeared to me that they schooners that were built at Monrovia, and they was ne all the tim or down the coast.—They have one fine schooner that cost them three thousand dollars, that trades as the coast. You will see people about repairing the version. and if you were not near them, you would think yes were among white people. They have some very fast stone and frame houses—but the houses they build are of stone. They have some very fine gardens. As for the world were also as they have some very fine gardens. the vegetables, they have a great variety, which grow with little or no trouble. Dut of poultry they have but few and very dear. They have some very fine cova and they are in good order-and they have but one horse in the place. They work the garden shouth or with the hoe. I must conclude with Monrors by saying that the inhabitants appear to be very here.

ROBBING AN EMPLOYER. On Friday night, as William M. Sittman, German, and clerk to Mr. Charles Ahreafeld of 46 Maiden Lane, was about leaving the stom about $5, in his pocket, which he had stoles from Mr. A., who thereupon changed the destination of his clerk to the watch-house. Is the morning he made an affidavit of the theft, and Sittman was sent to prison.

of p day for about two months past, the fron his shop, suspected that the had also been instrumental in the don of them, and he was at out of prison and taken by Mr. S officer, to his lodgings in Gold stre to Spruce, where, on searching, of facy pin cushions, tooth brushes, backs, beads of various kinds, black sols, cambric shirt buttons, toilet saled bead bag putterns, nearly twelf dressed and undressed dolls, ten music ins, prints, &c. to the value of $1 electing, as he stole them from the store LAbresfeldt to be his. The young thie in mother young man and two repartments in Gold street, and there dis plunder. He was sent to prison ind for his crime .- N. Y. Daily Ado.

MEMARKABLE INSTANCE OF PI SENCE OF MIND.

We have heard of a remarkable instan ce of mind exhibited a few days F: sintelligent boy of 8 or 9 years of feld, N. H. which is worth recording sales on the banks of a mill pone, who me tep and he knew not how to swim ming to the surface he found himself cest several feet from the shore. A atiteccurred to him that it was started Magazine, a work which he had in reat care and delight, that if person diffectionment would throw themselv ack, and kick with their icet, at the teeping their hands perfectly still b ble to keep their heads above a long ime. He tried the experiment seccesful beyond his hopes, for his ng tow rds the bank after kicking man for moments he was enabled to grasp a the borders, and gain terra firma. So fuley's Magazine and presence of mi

Bistated in Falkenstein's life of Ko that when this distinguished Pole rei contry for the purpose of combati-uff of liberty, he was utterly unpro-idleters of introduction, and nearly po-B; sought an interview with Washin ttdo you seek here?" inquired the with his usual brevity. "I come to fig munteer for American Independence, emally brief and fearless reply. " you do?" was Washington's next que rich Kosciusko with his characteristi id, only r joined "Try me." This was raions soon offered, in which his to gat character was duly appreciated.

sidore Gandouin, an old inhabitant of send for many years a resident of Eas to he kept a small dry goods store, p charging the contents of a heavily l an's pistol through his mouth, by whole of the upper part of his head remaining. The deceased was anyuno strict to great bodily infirmity for

EPISCOPAL CONSECRATION. P. Pr. Jackson Kemper was on Friday m an 4 at Sa Peter's Church, Philadelphia, my Sukep.—The ceremonies on the occasion main and imposing. The Consecration mached by the Right Rev. Bishop Donne, The Church was crowded—among the trus the renerable sishops White and Moo al ther distinguished members of the He and the Episcopil Church—as well as a decided the Clergy

a Sinday week, A. Freeze, Esq. of ? vent out to shoot some hawks that we ying the poultry of his brother in law.
to cross of fence, he put his gun through the lock touched the fence, the set of and shot him in the head. He hatly. He was a young man high Mingston (U. C.) Herald.

TEAMBOAT EXPLOSION. lam from the Mobile Advertiser, morning, that the steumboat Don's rooting, that the steumboat Don's rooting, that the steumboat Don's rooting, the list inst. about 27 miles about 25 miles about 25 miles about 27 miles orning, that the steamboat Don

by the steamboat Andrew Jackson

ed for that purpose. REMARKABLE OPERATION. REMARKABLE OPERATION.

This sean, this morning, a young men from the same Wilson, born deal, and of course do some of bearing has been restored, o exist of bearing has been restored, o exist of bearing has been restored, of the same of bearing has been restored, and the same of two intelligible sounds, only the same of two intelligible sounds, only the same of two intelligible sounds, only the same stored in the Dear and Dumb in the same of the period of the same of the